

PHOTONASTIC

La Piana has always relied on light and movement as a central component of his work. This is evident in the painterly large-scale abstract photographs within his Photonastic series. These works, which explore the organic response to light in kinetic energy, consist of complex structures of numerous labyrinths creating whimsical, organic fluid abstractions.